St. Joseph's Addiction Treatment & Recovery Centers

Celebrating 40 years of healing individuals, reuniting families, and strengthening communities, St. Joseph's has been a leader in addiction treatment services since 1971.

Founded by the Franciscan Friars of the Atonement, St. Joseph's serves primarily New York's Adirondack region, and also provides services to clients living throughout New York and surrounding states.

Our 63-bed inpatient facility for men and women in Saranac Lake, and outpatient clinics located throughout Franklin and Essex Counties provide a full continuum of health services.

- Individualized Lengths-of-Stay
- Family Services Integrated into Treatment
- Specialized Services for Women and Criminal Justice Referred Clients
- Mental Health Services for Co-Occurring Disorders
- Unique Adirondack Experience Recreation Therapy Program
- Statewide Supportive Fellowship Network
